TOWNLEY DROPS HIS "BALANCE OF POWER" PLAN

LEAGUE CHIEF
WILL NOT URGE
NEW PROPOSAL

Makes Announcement That He Won't Ask Indorsement at Fargo

THROWS THINGS IN AIR

Fight Now Expected to Be One on Present League State Executive Committee

Minneapolis, March 21.—A. C. Townley, president of the National Non-partisan League, announced today that he would not urge his "balance of power" plan at the forthcoming state conventions in North Dakota and Minnesota.

Townley's statement was made upon his return from meetings in these two states and it was expected his "balance of power" plan would be the outstanding point of contention in the state conventions.

It is Mr. Townley's contention that the farmer-labor vote is sufficient to constitute a balance of power as between the Democratic and Republican parties whereas it might not be strong enough to elect entirely independent or league candidates.

The announcement that Townley would not present his plan follows county conventions in which nearly half of the delegates were instructed against it. It will now make the convention of the 207 league delegates at Fargo Thursday a free-for-all. The fight is expected to be transferred from the attack on the "balance of power" idea to the present majority of Liederbach, Kaldor and Levang. Liederbach was put out of the race in Dunn county for re-nomination for state senator and R. H. Walker, his opponent on the state committee, was selected for the position.

POOLING PLAN MAY RESULT IN GROWERS FIGHT

United Grain Growers Inc. Gets Under Way For Meeting in Chicago Today

Chicago, March 21.—A warm fight over the 100 per cent pooling issue was anticipated as the first annual convention of the U. S. Grain Growers, Inc., a co-operative farmers marketing organization, got under way today. While some members of the board of directors were quoted as saying the 100 per cent pooling plan was a dead issue others were known to favor it and in some quarters it was expected pooling would be one of the principle questions before the gathering. Upon the outcome of the pooling issue it was said depended the possible amalgamation with other co-operative marketing agencies many of which are committed to the 100 per cent pool which the American Wheat Growers association has organized plans to operate in ten states.

Some delegates professed to see slight prospect for amalgamation, expressing belief that the convention would not consider the pooling issue. The convention this morning was devoted largely to routine matters with the address of C. H. Gustafson, Lincoln, Neb., president, scheduled for this afternoon. The delegates hope to finish all business by tomorrow night.

SUSPENSION OF
RULES PLANNED
ON THE BONUS

Speaker Gillette Agrees For Presentation of Measure on Thursday

Washington, March 21.—The soldiers bonus will be taken up by the house Thursday under suspension of rules under a plan agreed on today at a conference between Speaker Gillette and Chairman Campbell of the rules committee.

The speaker, it was said, agreed to this. Mr. Campbell said he would call a meeting of his committee tomorrow morning at which he will ask committee members to report a rule designating Thursday as suspension day with a proviso that four hours debate on the bill shall be provided.

Under this procedure a two-thirds majority would be necessary to pass the bill. No amendments would be permitted nor would it be possible to recommend the measure to the ways and means committee.

Those in charge of the legislation were confident that it would receive more than the two-thirds majority. The rule will have to be agreed to by the majority of the rules committee and then will have to obtain a majority vote in the house.

Proponents of the bonus legislation were confident that both majorities could be obtained.

HUGHES DENIES
SECRET TREATY WITH ENGLAND

MAKES CAUSTIC REPLY

Senator Borah Had Hinted at Secret Agreement With Great Britain

Washington, March 21.—Presentation in the senate today of a letter from Secretary Hughes denying flatly that any secret agreement exists for future British-American co-operation led today to another effort by opponents of the four-power treaty to send it back to committee. The efforts brought on a warm debate.

The secretary's letter characterized suggestions of such an agreement as "absolutely false." It was laid before Senator Lodge, republican leader, and a member of the arms delegates who at the same time put into the records a telegram from Paul (Ruvatt), New York attorney, denying the accuracy of a statement on the same subject attributed to him by Senator Borah, republican, Idaho.

Reiterating a denial made in a former communication that any secret agreements exist with other powers in connection with the arms conference Mr. Hughes wrote in today's letter that he hoped to see "no further aspersions" upon the "veracity and honor" of the American delegates.

I. V. A. HOLDING
"DARK HORSE" IN
SENATOR RACE?

Ormsby, McHarg Seeks to Eliminate McCumber and Gronna From Endorsement

ATTACKS CHRISTIANSON

Raises Constitutional Bar Against Jurist—Others Mentioned

Who is the I. V. A. dark horse for Republican candidate for the United States senate?

In a letter prominently displayed on the editorial page of the Fargo Forum, Ormsby McHarg of Jamestown, former private secretary to Senator McCumber, eliminates Gronna and McCumber and seeks through legal interpretation of the constitution to prevent the consideration of Judge Christianson's name at the convention called by Bursleigh Spalding's Real Republican Committee.

The letter quotes the constitutional provision affecting the candidacy of judges of the supreme court for any position other than that of a judicial nature.

Covert Slap at Christianson
Friends of Judge Christianson construe it as a covert slap at him on the part of certain I. V. A. leaders who frown on his possible candidacy. There has at no time been the slightest intimation that Judge Christianson would be a candidate although considerable pressure has been brought to bear upon him to declare himself.

McHarg Robs Up.
Ormsby McHarg after a long sojourn in New York following services under the Roosevelt and Taft administrations has come back to North Dakota and evidently will start to play the political game again. It will be remembered that he was active in getting colored delegations to Chicago and his name was more or less prominent in the Ballinger episode.

Mr. McHarg in his eagerness to discount Judge Christianson as a candidate declares that Gronna and McCumber are behind the movement to force judges into the senatorial race. On this point he writes:

Calls It Propaganda
"McCumber and Gronna are trying old-fashioned political methods to dominate the senatorial situation. They want to inject into the situation as much confusion as they possibly can. They are the men who are encouraging judges of the courts of the state to become candidates for the senate. This judicial candidacy business is clearly propaganda in their behalf."

"No unprejudiced student of constitutional law, particularly one familiar with the arguments in the constitutional convention, can read Section 119 of the state constitution and arrive at a conclusion other than that judges of the supreme and district courts of the state are ineligible for the office of United States senator, in fact for any office other than judicial."

"In this connection some lawyers argue that the houses of congress are the sole judges of the qualifications of their members, as well as the means or method of their election. This premise may be accepted if the people of the state from which the man presents himself have not seen fit to place some, to them, necessary and fundamental limitations on his qualifications. So long as the limitations are general and are not directed solely to their qualifications for federal office the legislature of the state may define the qualifications its citizens must possess in order to represent it. Is it an act of unwisdom to prescribe that the courts of this state shall be free from political strife and intrigue? Certainly not."

The constitution of this state as evidenced by Section 119 is not peculiar or exceptional and is not addressed to federal offices alone. It applies to all offices other than judicial to which the judge during his term of office may aspire. He cannot be a candidate for governor. He may, however, be appointed by the president of the United States to any office as neither the legislative assembly nor the voters of the state are required to express their will in order to make the appointment effective.

Wisdom of Provision.
"It is a bold person who would express doubt as to the wisdom of this provision of the constitution. It articulates a wholesome principle, a great political axiom. The motive, which is finally crystallized in the axiom, is as pure as the wisdom which we ascribe to the framers of our fundamental law. It is made entirely clear that the courts of the state shall not be made stepping stones for politically ambitious men. Section 119 of the state constitution reads as follows:

"Section 119. No judge of the supreme or district courts shall be elected or appointed to any other than a judicial office or be eligible thereto during the term for which he was elected or appointed, such judge. All votes or appointments for either of them for any office except that of judge of the supreme court, or district court, given by the legislative assembly."

STATE RECORDS
CHANGED, SAYS
AUDIT REPORT

First Records of Mill and Elevator Association Are Now Missing

Others Substituted?
Many Unusual Transactions Are Outlined in Report on Office

Original records of the Industrial Commission, which now are in the hands of the state auditor, have been written up by the Industrial Commission after a long delay, according to the audit report of the Industrial Commission made by Bishop, Brissman and Company for the present Industrial Commission, made public today.

The original records were denied to auditors of the same concern when employed by the state board of auditors previous to the legislative session last year. The audit company's information of the missing records is contained in the report as follows: "During the previous examination, December, 1920, we called at the Fargo office for the purpose of examining their records and were told by Sadie Dodd, J. A. McGovern's secretary, that Mr. McGovern was absent from the city at the time and that the office records had been turned over to the Equitable Audit Company. We next inquired of Mr. Darling, representative of the Equitable Audit Co., and were advised that part of the records were in a suit case of his, locked up, in Fargo."

Mr. Leuhrs informed us that in July, 1919, he purchased a Journal, Cash Book and Ledger, and that the transactions of the office were entered therein by him during his service, and that the Journal and Ledger on file in the office of the Industrial Commission, were not the records installed and maintained by him. The Journal on file in the office of the Industrial Commission is written up in violet ink, and was written up by Mrs. Dodd and written up by the Equitable Audit Co. The original records installed in July, 1919, were not on file in the office of the Industrial Commission."

Records Altered
The report then submits items purchased from a Fargo supply house in July, 1919, showing record books were purchased. In confirmation of the above statements, and continues: "The 1919 invoice covers the records installed by Mr. Leuhrs, and the invoice of Dec. 6, 1920 covers the records that were apparently written up by the Equitable Audit Co. and also the violet ink."

The charges of altered or destroyed records of the Mill and Elevator Association, made last winter during the legislative session, appears to have been substantiated by the audit company's investigation. It is known that the present Industrial Commission has received some other reports and that the secretary has made some investigation of the altering of records, which may lead to further action.

Other unusual transactions in connection with the Fargo office that was maintained by the Mill and Elevator Association with J. A. McGovern as manager are shown. Total salaries paid by the office amounted to $12,662.30.

Bishop, Brissman Report Shows Expense Involved in Mills, Elevators

DRAKE LOSS IS $80,000

Grand Forks Mill Contracts Total $2,200,000, Audit Report Shows

North Dakota's mill and elevator program represents a net loss to date of $187,194.17 out of a total of $1,265,841.95 thus far invested, according to the Bishop, Brissman and Company audit, submitted to the Industrial Commission and made public today.

The loss is divided between the Grand Forks project, the Fargo office of the Mill and Elevator association and the Drake mill. The record of the mill and elevator program summarized is:

Drake mill—Cash advances, $142,891.20; net cash investment, $138,506.38; original cost of mill, $20,000; additions, $9,088.08; furniture and fixtures, $1,027.27. Net loss operation and depreciation, $50,255.50.

Mill and Elevator association, Fargo office—Expenses, 19,273.31. Grand Forks project—Total assets, $1,026,613.87. Net expenses, $57,667.36.

The cost of the mill and elevator program as shown in the report is represented in the deficit of $80,255.50 in the Drake mill; expense of $19,273.31 in the Fargo office and $57,667.36 on the Grand Forks project. In the case of the Grand Forks mill the auditors show the expense by the difference in the liabilities and the assets of the mill now in course of construction and account for the detailed expense in a separate compilation.

The Drake mill has never made a profit except in the year 1919, according to the report, and the report states that "The profit for the year ending December 31, 1919, of $3,750.00, was submitted by A. W. Leuhrs, the manager, to J. A. McGovern, who was then in charge of the investment."

What Did the Report Show?
The report states that the Drake mill, which cost $20,000, was sold for $14,184.00 and the balance of $5,816.00 was paid to the operating state out of pocket. Dec. 31, 1919, profit, $3,750.00. Dec. 31, 1920, loss, $13,506.38. Dec. 31, 1921, loss, $13,506.38. Dec. 31, 1922, plant and equipment depreciation in value, $50,255.50.

Total loss ..... $80,255.50
The total amount of contracts made or complete on the Grand Forks project is $2,258,188.92, of which $1,045,456.86 is delivered and $1,297,767.04 is incomplete. In addition to the $1,297,767.00 expense yet necessary to completion of the mill there also is the expense of trackage and adjustment of engineering and contracting costs, part of which is on a modified plus system, which may increase the cost of the mill considerably.

Because of the fact that accounts of the Mill and Elevator association, the Grand Forks project and the Drake mill were found to overlap in places it was difficult for the auditing companies to separate and allocate the expenditures of the various offices, it is shown. The records of the three offices were found to be incorrect in some respects by the auditing company which was summarized and corrected these matters.

Amount Thus Far Spent.
The construction account of the Grand Forks project shows a total of $1,045,456.86 invested, either in installed items or in inventories on hand. The total cash advanced and interest of the Bank of North Dakota to the Mill and Elevator association is shown to be $1,062,076.22, of which amount $142,691.02 is applicable to the Drake mill. # 13 STATES TO GIVE BATTLE TO RUST DEMON

This New Movement Aims at The Eradication of the Barberry Bush

MILLERS WILL COOPERATE

Fargo, N. D., March 20.—The "Rust Prevention Association," formed by thirteen states in a meeting at St. Paul recently has behind it for the first time the whole hearted support of the millers of the Twin Cities, says Professor H. L. Bolley, chief plant pathologist of the Agricultural college here. The movement aids at the eradication of the barberry bush.

Franklin H. Crosby of the firm of Washburn Crosby, who was elected vice president of the association said, according to Mr. Bolley, "We are in with our coats off to dig out the bush."

"People in general and especially the millers have become convinced that valuable wheats such as the variety known as Marquis are very non-resistant to rust. Hence if they want to save these wheats they must get the barberry bush on which the rust develops dug out—not only in the wheat states like North Dakota but also in the surrounding country."

Professor Bolley stressed the point that the movement must be a national one if it is to be effective. "The wind blows with whither it listeth," he declared, "and it carries the spores of rust along ways."

He added that as the barberry and rust have traveled west wheat culture has died out, first in the New England states, then in New York and now in Michigan.

The association decided that the federal government should be asked for at least $500,000 for the work. It also recommended that states take an active part in the campaign and if possible appropriate funds to help the work.

"The sum asked is insignificant compared with the enormous savings which will be made if rust is eradicated. In 1916 the government estimated that the minimum loss due to rust in the wheat states was 191,000,000 bushels. The Canadian government estimated its loss as 100,000 bushels."

"Barberry eradication work throughout the country as a whole has not kept pace with the spread of the bush and we will soon have another year as bad as 1916. The aim of the movement is to speed up eradication work."

Professor Bolley has been fighting the barberry for thirty years and is closely identified with the work along that line in the state.

JURY TERM IS NEARING END

Federal Court Probably Will Finish Jury Cases Today

The last jury case of the present term of federal court here was being tried today. It was that of Russell Bryan, of Bismarck, charged with a liquor law violation. It was expected that the case would be finished today, and juries and others were expected to go home tonight or tomorrow.

Ole Kittleson, of Dunn Center, was acquitted by a jury late Saturday afternoon. He was charged with transporting liquor. His attorney, H. Cameron, declared he was morally innocent. He said Mr. Kittleson, a highly respected citizen and manager of more than one telephone exchange, had been asked by another man to take him to the Indian fair at Ft. Berthold. The other man pulled out a jug of liquor on the way. Cameron said Kittleson protested but could not make the other man throw away the liquor.

He said it was a foolish case for the federal prohibition agents to present to the district attorney who necessarily prosecuted the matter.

Frank Falk, of Dunn county, pleaded guilty and was fined $10 for a liquor law violation. His attorney, T. F. Murtha, gave a statement of the case which was somewhat similar to the Kittleson case.

The state authorities in Dunn county "passed the buck" to the federal authorities in this case. S. L. Nuchola, assistant district attorney said. He said the government had no facts except the report of state officers who made the arrest and then turned the case over to the federal authorities instead of prosecuting in their own courts.

MAKING SURVEY OF SCHOOL LIFE IN NORTH DAKOTA

Report Will Be Made To The North Dakota Children's Code Commission

WASH. BUREAU HELPS

Workers of the U. S. Children's Bureau of Washington, D. C., who have been conducting a survey of conditions in North Dakota met here for a conference over progress with Miss E. N. Matthews, Director of the Industrial Division of the Children's Bureau of Washington. Miss Matthews is on her way to a similar conference at Spokane, Washington, and Atlanta, Georgia.

The six young women who gathered here have been in the state since last September and will continue their work for three or four months more. Most of their work has a bearing upon the schools and the children's relations to the schools, and the workers have been in widely separated parts of the state, one investigator having to reach the far distant country school houses of her county on horse back. The workers who met here were Miss Helen M. Dart, Miss Mary E. Skinner, Miss Ruth H. Olmsted and Miss Ruth Bloodgood.

These representatives of the National Children's Work Organization are conducting a survey of North Dakota conditions for the use of the Children's Code Commission of the state. When the field work is completed, the material gathered will be taken to Washington and there worked into a report, which will be sent to the North Dakota organization for its guidance in making the final recommendations to the legislature for the formulation of laws regarding the interest of children and women.

Delinquency in children, dependency in children, health conditions in children, the conditions surrounding handicapped children in the state and all phases of the school life of the children of North Dakota will be dealt with in this report.

The North Dakota Children's Code Commission, to which this survey will be reported is composed of representatives of seven welfare organizations, with C. L. Young of Bismarck, as the chairman. The other members are: Miss Hazel Farkash, Bismarck; C. L. Vignes, Glen Ullin; Henrietta Lund, Dickinson; Margaret Froats, Grand Forks; A. J. McCannell, Minot, and May Flemming Strand of Ellendale.

DISTRICT DEBT LIMIT WILL GO THROUGH COURT

Suit is Started in Devils Lake to Test Out Matter Important to Many Districts

CASE BEING RESISTED

Devils Lake, N. D., March 20.—The question of the right of school districts in North Dakota to increase their debt limit from five per cent to ten per cent of their assessed valuation for the purpose of erecting school buildings, is about to be tested in a Ramsey county case in district court. Lewis Viger and thirteen other taxpayers and residents of the Edmore Special School District of Edmore, North Dakota through their attorneys, Flynn, Traynor & Traylor of Devils Lake have brought an action in the district court of Ramsey county against the board of education of the village of Edmore and against a number of parties who hold warrants issued for the erection of a school building at Edmore which warrants are claimed by the plaintiffs to be in excess of the debt limit of the district.

Election Held. In February, 1921, an election was held in the school district of the village of Edmore for the avowed purpose of increasing the debt limit from five per cent to ten per cent of the assessed valuation and the issuance of bonds in the sum of $30,000 for the purpose of completing the school building, which had been already partially constructed. The school board considered it had an authority to call this election by virtue of Section 182 of the Constitution of the State of North Dakota as amended by vote of the people on March 16, 1920. It appears, however, that the legislature has not passed any statutory provision in harmony with the constitutional amendment and the old statute limits the indebtedness of a school district to five per cent of its assessed valuation. The attorney general's office has therefore held that the constitutional provision that a school district may increase its debt limit an additional five per cent, thus making the total limit ten per cent of the assessed valuation is not operative because of the fact that the legislature has failed to pass any law to put it into effect. The Edmore School District, thinking that they had legally authorized the increasing of the debt limit and the issuance of the $30,000 worth of bonds, proceeded to complete the erection of their school building at an expense of $30,000 or $40,000 and issued warrants to the contractors and others to pay therefore. When they came to market their bonds to the Board of University and School Lands, however, the bonds were refused for the reason that the attorney general ruled that the indebtedness was in excess of the legal debt limit as provided by law.

Warrants Holders Are Defendants. It is the contention of the plaintiffs in this action that these warrants amounting to $30,000 or $40,000 are all in excess of the legal five per cent debt limit and that therefore are illegal and void. The persons holding the warrants have been made defendants and the plaintiffs ask that all of the warrants be retired and cancelled for the reason that they are wholly void.

The case is of considerable public interest for the reason that a number of school districts are in much the same dilemma as Edmore School District finds itself. The city of Devils Lake is in the same boat. The Board of Education here held a special election to authorize the issuance of bonds for the erection of a $350,000 high school building and at that election the people of the city voted to increase the debt limit an additional five per cent and that has been the result. Devils Lake for the same reason as Edmore, has been unable to market any bonds and for that reason Devils Lake has taken no steps towards the erection of the new high school building.

decision knocking out the state grain grading act, Attorney-General Sveinbjorn Johnson has ruled. In an opinion submitted to the board he says:

March 18th, 1922. State Board of Railroad Commissioners, Bismarck, N. Dak. Gentlemen:

Answering your letter of recent date with reference to the effect of the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States in the case of the Embury Farmers Elevator Company against Lemke and others, I beg to advise that I have given this matter considerable thought and I have come to the conclusion that the so called Grain Grading Act of 1919 is completely wiped out and therefore, is void; that the Act of 1917, of which the Act of 1919 is a re-enactment, is also wiped out and void because of the same decision of the Circuit Court of Appeals, which still stands as law in this jurisdiction; that, therefore, jurisdiction over warehouses is re-invested and restored in the Board of Railroad Commissioners as such jurisdiction existed prior to the enactment of the Grain Standard Act of 1917 and that of 1919.

I would further suggest that all bonds heretofore filed and in existence under the provisions of the Grain Standard Act of 1919, be promptly filed with your Board by the Grain Inspection Department, and that your Board forthwith approve such bonds as provided in Section 311 and other Sections of the same Article of the Compiled Laws of 1918. I am of the opinion that such bonds are all valid and existing obligations of the sureties, notwithstanding the fact that the Law of 1919 has been declared unconstitutional and that all that is necessary to complete the same is the approval of your board as required in the Article referred to.

Yours very truly, (Signed) SVEINBJORN JOHNSON, Attorney General.

LECTURE ON CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

BY WILLIAM D. KILPATRICK, C. S. B., of Detroit, Mich.

William D. Kilpatrick, C. S. B., of Detroit, Mich., a member of the Board of Lectureship of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass., delivered a lecture on Christian Science in the Eltinge Theatre of Bismarck, Monday evening at 8 o'clock.

The subject of Mr. Kilpatrick's lecture was "Christian Science—God's Law."

The lecturer was introduced by George N. Langum of this city.

The lecture in part is as follows.

"Christian Science comes to you, my friends, with a glorious promise and with a reason for the hope that is in it. It says to those who are sick, those who are sorrowful, those who are fearful and those who are poverty-stricken, in the words of Jesus, 'Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest.' Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly in heart; and ye shall find rest unto your souls. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.' Christian Science offers you sure succor from sorrow and fear, it has a panacea for all your ills and your misfortunes, and it comes with a heart full of love and compassion, with healing in its wings and with a world of joy and happiness for all. In Christian Science the sackcloth and ashes are exchanged for the oil of gladness. As foretold in the vision of St. John, 'And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain; for the former things are passed away.'"

Christian Science has come to humanity to restore to it the lost art of healing which the great Master, Jesus the Christ, declared should exemplify the understanding of those truths of existence which he gave to the world some twenty centuries ago. One can hardly read the New Testament without a firm conviction that much of the vitality given it by the life and works of Jesus has been lost or eliminated throughout the intervening centuries. Jesus taught that it was his understanding of God and God's government of His universe which enabled him to do the works of healing and regeneration he so freely accomplished throughout his brief ministry and of which he said in unmistakable terms 'He that believeth on me, the works that I do shall he do also.' Jesus' mission on earth was to establish with men that understanding of God which would enable them to do the very works that he did.

Jesus taught that His works of healing and regeneration were not of a miraculous nature but were indigenous to the correct understanding of God which He came to give us. Jesus came to establish the kingdom of heaven on earth for all mankind throughout all time—for you and for me, right here and now. In that mighty prayer, given us in his Sermon on the Mount, we find these words: 'Thy kingdom come.' 'Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven.' That which enabled the disciples of Jesus to heal the sick, cast out demons and even raise the dead was intended for you and for me just as much as for the disciples. Otherwise the marvelous works and teachings of Jesus are of no avail as our Savior. There is nothing in the Bible and in the teachings and works of the Master to excuse us in the least for not healing the sick by prayer and spiritual means in accord with the commands of Jesus. In the sixteenth chapter of St. Mark's Gospel, Jesus gave this explicit command to all mankind, through the medium of his disciples—'These signs shall follow them that believe; in my name shall they cast out devils; they shall speak with new tongues; they shall take up serpents; and if they drink any deadly thing it shall not hurt them; they shall lay hands on the sick and they shall recover.' And is it not a glorious thing to know that at last we have been awakened, through Christian Science, to the recognition of the fact that that command was for you and for me, and that we have been given, through Christian Science, that understanding of Jesus' teachings which makes the fulfillment of this command a present and immediate possibility, and that you and I may know enough right here and now to assist in establishing the kingdom of heaven on earth?

If you will carefully follow the life of Jesus as given in the New Testament and consider his works in connection with what he taught, you will discover that what he did was merely to establish as a demonstrable fact what he taught, and that what he taught and did were said and done in accord with, and in explanation of, some immutable ever present, universal law. You will see, in other words, that his words and works were looking to the establishment with men of a divine, omnipotent, spiritual law which will eventually rule all mankind to the complete extinction of any of the so-called opposed law and its effects. The world had always been accounting law to be that which had to do with the material universe and had looked, and still does look, upon law to be that which has to do with materiality or matter. In fact, if you will consider for a moment you will agree that we have never associated law with anything but with matter. All material or physical manifestations of whatever name or nature—all material phenomena—claim to be the product or outcome of some material law. Everything cognized in the experience of mortals from the cradle to the grave is claimed to exist or to transpire because of a law of matter, and if we will carefully analyze our concept of this entire material existence we will find that we have attributed all material conditions, phenomena and manifestations to God. Have we not? Have we not always looked upon everything of which we have been cognizant through the medium of the senses of seeing, hearing, feeling, tasting and smelling to be God-ordained and manifestations of a divine cause of which we have had no particular knowledge? We have merely taken these apparent material conditions to be matters of fact, without question, and have submitted to the misery and want and was resultant therefrom as inevitable visitations of a divine providence of which we were supposed to know little or nothing until, perhaps, we had passed the portals of another existence. We have hardly once stopped to consider what Jesus said and did about these conditions which we have so long attributed, in our ignorance to God. But, when, by Christian Science, we have been called to a halt in our loose and reckless methods of thinking about God and men, and about Jesus and his works, we have been brought face to face with the fact that there is hardly a word uttered by Jesus or an act committed by him in the course of his ministry that does not completely deny, controvert and overthrow some so-called material, or physical law. And if we will follow him in his three years' work with men in his effort to establish the kingdom of heaven on earth there is not a single evidence of material existence, not a single so-called law governing our material living, and material phenomena which forms a part of our daily experience, that Jesus did not utterly annul through his intelligent application of what he termed the Law of God which he said would make us all free when known or understood. 'Ye shall know the truth,' Jesus said, 'and the truth shall make you free.' That is, ye shall know and understand this Law of God which I here expound and prove to you and this knowledge shall give you power over all things material, thereby setting you free from these so-called laws which have so long held mankind in bondage. Jesus said 'Think not that I am come to destroy the law or the prophets; I am not come to destroy, but to fulfill.' And then he proceeded to break down and destroy every physical law of which we have any cognizance, through his application of God's law. And this Law of God—this Law the knowledge and application of which Jesus said should make us free—is what Christian Science has come to re-establish with men. Those wonderful works of Jesus prove conclusively that laws of matter are not God's Laws and that God's Laws are not only superior but are actually laws of annihilation to so-called material laws and thereby prove that material laws are the product of a mortal misconception of what constitutes true law.

As we contemplate with prayerful care the life and works of our Master, as we study carefully all that he said in connection with his many wonderful works, we become impressed, more and more, with the gratifying conviction that the understanding and application, in our daily living, of the truths, or laws, which he expounded constitute that Comforter which Jesus said he would send to us and which will, when understood and applied by us, free us from all those ills to which we have ever considered mankind naturally subject.

We find, with reassurance, that this Law of God is a law of life—not of death; a law of health—not of sickness; a law of abundance—not of lack and limitation; a law of harmony—not of discord; a law of peace—not of strife; a law of love—not of hate. And oh! if we could but comprehend what this law of love embraces. How sadly this old world needs love, the love that Jesus gave to the world and of which the apostle spake when he said 'Love is the fulfilling of the law.' What a ministry of love was that of Jesus. Could he be compared to that love which endured, without murmuring, the world's hatred and scorn that you and I might understand that the Law of God is omnipotent and omnipresent; that we might know that there are no material conditions over which this Law of God has not all power? It was this love expressed through Jesus which enabled him to prove that there is no death, and whereby he emerged from the tomb to perpetuate throughout the ages man's inalienable right to life eternal. Writing of this experience of Jesus, Mary Baker Eddy, the Discoverer and Founder of Christian Science, says on page 44 of her book 'Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures':

"The lonely precincts of the tomb gave Jesus a refuge from his foes, a place in which to solve the great problem of being. His three days' work in the sepulchre set the seal of eternity on time. He proved Life to be deathless and Love to be the master of hate."

Prayer And now the question of how to bring into action this ever-present law of God, how to apply it to our present needs, how to heal the sick, comfort the sorrowing and save the sinner, as Jesus did, naturally presents itself. This, my friends, is accomplished in Christian Science solely through the prayer of understanding. Christian Scientists have learned that whatever is to be achieved in the way of healing and saving must be done through such prayer, and that this prayer must be without ceasing. Our every thought, inclination and deed must be the outcome of a constant mental attitude of prayer if we would follow the Master in the way of his appointing. A Christian Scientist soon learns that in bringing to the world those blessings of God's Law which Jesus so clearly exemplified we do not have to compel the operation of God's Law, we simply have to let it do its work, or rather, let the work this Law has already accomplished for man, be manifested to us. The purpose of true prayer is one of elimination rather than one of compulsion or persuasion—the elimination, through spiritualization of consciousness, of that which St. Paul characterized as the carnal mind, the mortal mind, thus allowing that mind to be manifested in us 'which was also in Christ Jesus.'

We have been sadly blinded to the teachings of Jesus and to the wonderful possibilities of a demonstrable understanding of his teachings by the educational systems based upon materiality, by the befogging inconsistencies of creedal and formal religions, by superstitions, material beliefs, fears, hatred, malice, envy, jealousy and revenge. Much, even, that we have considered beautiful and at times helpful has been a hindrance to us in gaining that clarified vision necessary to our spiritual advancement. And it is this vast array of mental misconceptions, this dense web of materiality, which must be removed from before our mental horizon before our eyes shall see the glory of the coming of the Lord, before we can begin to experience in our daily lives those wonderful blessings which the Bible has vouchsafed every one of us. And it is through constant prayer and self-immolation—that these mental barriers are removed from our consciousness and the sunlight of God's ever presence is borne in upon us! As we begin to work in Christian Science and begin to understand what true prayer is, and how to pray as Jesus did, we begin, little by little, to replace, in our thinking, fear, envy, jealousy, hatred, revenge and the like, the procurers of all diseases, with confidence and meekness and trust and love and charity and forgiveness and sweetness; we begin to replace our concept of God's creation to be crassly material with the understanding that the universe and man are pure and spiritual; we begin to break the fetters of creed and dogma and ritual and emerge into the freedom of the Christ. And as we progress in prayer and understanding, God's Law begins to manifest itself to us and through us, in proportion to our purification of consciousness, in better health, better morals, better living, better business and more love for God and all mankind—in a more harmonious condition generally. We begin then to understand a little of what Jesus meant when He said, 'If ye have faith as a grain of mustard seed, ye shall say unto this mountain, 'Remove hence to yonder place'; and it shall remove; and nothing shall be impossible unto you.' We begin then to understand a little of how Jesus accomplished his wonderful works and to appreciate how far we have still to traverse, how much genuine purifying we have yet before us, before we are able to fully obey His command to 'go and do likewise.' It is through prayer that we gain our atonement, our at-one-ment with God, with 'Divine Love, with Life and with Truth,' whereby we can go with confidence to the bedside of the sick and bid them 'arise and walk'; to the charnel house of the sinner and command the 'evil spirit to come out of him' and to the tomb of the dead and bid those asleep in materiality to 'come forth.'

Mrs. Eddy has incorporated the fundamental teachings of Christian Science in her book, 'Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures.' This is the textbook of the Christian Science denomination. Through its study the secrets and obscurities of Holy Writ have been made plain and

SPRING FEVER
Have you noticed your annual attack of spring fever coming on yet? Watch for the symptoms. It's a fine time to take a psychological inventory of the ego, that mysterious being that moves our bodies as the operator of a marionette show moves his puppet-actors with strings.

Scientists never have been able to agree on exactly what causes spring fever.
Some say it's a lethargic drowsiness, caused by the body eliminating poisons accumulated during the physical inaction of winter.
Help the elimination by taking long walks, breathing deeply of the fragrant spring air, or starting a garden.

Another theory about spring fever is that it's a reaction from winter, first warm weather making us drop into the sluggishness of the tropics, home of our prehistoric ancestors.
Maybe, too, it's an inheritance from the times when the cave man, after a long and monotonous winter in his den, strolled out to bask lazily in the warm spring sunlight.

Odd thing is temperature, regulator of the amount of energy your body generates.

Hard to work at all on a hot summer day. Rainy weather, also, makes many folks sluggish and drowsy.

Researches by Ellsworth Huntington, of the National Academy of Science, show that human efficiency goes up or down with the mercury of the thermometer.

At 60 to 65 degrees, we do our best physical and brain work, and are healthiest. That's why the temperature of a house, office of workroom never should go above 68 in winter.

Sap starts rising in trees. Grass sprouts green. Plant life buds. Chirping birds pause on their way north. The ice goes out, fish run on the surface. The bear leaves his den. Timber wolves stop running in packs and mate.

That is spring—the sunrise of a new period of life.

The backward gardener stirs. Farmer whistles in the fields. Golf bug smacks his lips. Fisherman goes over his tackle. Small boys swarm with marbles, baseballs, kites.

Spring is the time to take a new lease on life, to get a fresh start. Fill your lungs with fresh air and go to it.

The best thing about spring fever is that it's a prelude to another round of intense human activity. Except, of course, for the gent that has spring fever 365 days of the year.

LAW OF AVERAGES
The law of averages is mathematical in its accuracy. When a scientifically-managed chain store system wants to open a new shop, it has "clockers" count the passing crowds, to learn what location has the most traffic flowing past its doors.
It is definitely known that a set percentage of the passers-by will turn into the new store. This is the law of averages—that, while a thing may not happen repeatedly, it will show up, on the average, every-so-often.
Gamblers use the law of averages, figuring systems to beat the bank at Monte Carlo. It is a law that should be taken into consideration in all proposed undertakings.

GORILLAS
You have always read that the gorilla is a terrible beast. Now comes Carl E. Akeley, back in New York after an expedition for the American Museum of Natural History.
Akeley brings with him five stuffed gorillas. He denies that gorillas are ferocious:
"There was no sport in shooting them. It was too easy. I made moving pictures of four big gorillas playing and keeping an eye upon me until they ran away into the jungle, frightened by the click of the camera."
This is an iconoclastic age, accepted notions being exploded one after the other like a pack of firecrackers.

IN A NUTSHELL
All last year, friends of the farmers were shouting that means must be found to check the rapid falling-off in exports of things grown on the farms.
Department of Agriculture now announces that exports of the 32 leading agricultural products gained 27 per cent in quantity in 1921, but decreased 39 per cent in value.

Most of the other basic industries have been going through the same thing.
The so-called collapse of exports is largely a collapse of prices.

RUNAWAY
Guy Clark—two years and nine months old—decided to give his new kiddie car a real try-out. He set out to tour the world.
When Guy failed to show up for noon-day lunch, his mother, knowing his appetite, began to look about in a hurry. She called police. All day they sought for him in Boston.

At night a patrolman found Guy, very tired but still clinging to his kiddie car, sitting on a curb.
The emotion of Guy's parents will be appreciated by that greatest international fraternal organization, parents.

A lost child in five minutes can stir up more excitement than a dozen sessions of the League of Nations. Let us be glad of that. Civilization is advancing or deteriorating, according to the attention and care devoted to children.
How much would you grown-ups, in a monotonous world, give for the thrills that Guy had on his adventure?

LONGER SKIRTS
Models from Paris exhibit the latest French fashions in the exclusive Fifth avenue shops, New York.
"The skirts are long."

Those four words may not seem important to men, yet to all American women they are extremely important, and certainly one of the most interesting of all things claiming attention.
Paris has always had a pretty free rein when it came to dictating fashions for women.

Will it win out this time, with long skirts? Our women have become enamored of the freedom and comfort of short skirts. That will not easily be overcome.

On the other hand, the long skirt may be one phase of the inevitable reaction to conservatism now sweeping the world.

WEATHER
As the world gets further away from war, there is more talk about the eternal and vital question, weather.

England checks up and reports that last year was her driest since 1815, the record year for scant rain-fall.

The reaction to this will be an exceptionally wet season—maybe this year, maybe next, maybe not for several years, but it is certain.

Nature evens everything up. She, too, uses the law of average.

GERMANY UNDERSELLING
A French business expert, pointing out that Germany is underselling all nations, comments that the German salesman's greatest help is his ability to extend to a customer any amount of credit, with anywhere from four months to a year to pay.
That is our greatest foreign trade problem. Some way, it can and will be solved. We are the world's richest nation, and have a fabulous hoard of gold on which to base credits.

EDITORIAL REVIEW
Comments reproduced in this column may or may not express the opinion of The Tribune. They are presented here in order that our readers may have both sides of important issues which are being discussed in the press of the day.

LILLIE TAYLOR'S CASE
A court decision in Texas gives Lillie Taylor, a colored woman, 25 years old, and unmarried, oil lands worth $15,000,000. This young woman, "cleaned" for a living before fortune overtook her.

What now? The property is hers. Perhaps she never earned or possessed a thousand dollars in a year in her life. In all probability she is totally unfitted to manage the net income of her property, around $300,000 a year, to say nothing of the property itself. She may squander it in the wildest extravagances, may become the financial prey of thieving scoundrels, and the law has nothing to say. It is her property to do with as she wills.

Why should not the law, which awards her this great fortune as a matter of right, also protect her in the management of it and the income she receives from it? She is, no doubt, as much in need of a guardian for her wealth as a ten-year-old child; but being an adult she may become the victim of a horde of adventurers who know exactly what they want to do with her money, and the law does not interfere.

With her great income she could live in luxury and have a quarter of a million dollars a year with which to improve the condition of her race in the South. She could endow great charities, great industrial schools, and a multitude of lesser beneficial organizations. But she is likely to do none of these things. If her experience should parallel that of other people thrown suddenly into the possession of great wealth with no training in the care of huge sums of money, the coming years of Lillie are likely to be marked by a series of absurdities, as the millions melt away amid feasters and furs and jewels galore.

But why should not the law provide a reasonable protection to all persons who fall under such conditions?—Chicago Journal of Commerce.

sembly of the people, shall be void."
"It is submitted that there is not a constitution in the land containing stronger or more explicit words of limitation and disqualification. It is entirely plain that the constitutional convention knew the nature of the subject with which it was dealing. There is not a single word of doubt or equivocation in the section quoted. It is submitted that it would be an act of bad faith for any judge by his act to call in question the interpretation of the fundamental law of the state, particularly at a time like this."
"The security of the state does not depend upon its representation in congress but it does depend upon the integrity of its courts, and the freedom of its judges from the temptation to render self-serving decisions. This singleness of purpose is what judges, lawyers and clients must observe and seek to preserve."

"It is to be hoped that for the good of the state the question of the eligibility of a judge for a political office will not be presented at this time, when it is so necessary to finally dispose of the senatorial issue here at home. What chance would an outsider have, against the present incumbent, who must submit himself to the voters in June, in a contest staged before the senate committee on privileges and elections?"
"This judge for senator agitation is not the result of poverty of material off the bench. Let's avoid mere's nests, and anything that looks like the propaganda of league leaders."
Mr. McHarg in the first portion of his letter comments on Gronna and McCumber as follows:
Eliminates Gronna and McCumber
"The Jamestown convention will be called upon to consider the merits of the various candidates for the office of United States senator. If the delegates to the convention are consistent and aim to truly represent their constituents they will not endorse a man for the senate who is identified with the Nonpartisan league, nor will they endorse any man whose candidacy will by any chance indirectly advance the interests of such men. This much we may take for granted. Assuming that the premises stated correctly set forth the position of those who supported the recall let us examine the records of some of the men who are mentioned for the office of senator. Mr. McCumber because of his incumbency of the office, must always come in for attention. It is well established that for the past six years he has played a "hand off game" with the league and went so far as to support the league leaders in the recall last fall. This clearly eliminates him from consideration in the convention."

"Mr. Gronna's announcement so far as it appears in the press, no part of which has been retracted, in the face of The Forum's critical analysis of it, places Mr. Gronna in sympathy with one wing of the league leadership."

"Another indication of the reported I. V. A. Liederbach faction alliance is that some well known league leaders are now circulating initiative petitions for the I. V. A."

It makes clear his attitude, which is one of sympathy with the program of one branch of the league leaders. It would seem that when he chose the Journal-News as the medium for promulgating his candidacy and his subsequent bid for the Nonpartisan league convention endorsement, that he has placed himself in a position no more enviable from the standpoint of the delegates that will go to the Jamestown convention than is the position of Mr. McCumber. The people of the state are not in such dire straits that they must choose between the evils of McCumber league domination and Gronna league domination. No sane man believes that the Republicans of the state will be required at the Jamestown convention to write their political epitaph."

Looks Like Dark Horse
This letter is construed in some circles to mean that the Jamestown convention will have a dark horse for senatorial honors. It is known that some favor Jerry Bacon, publisher of the Grand Forks Herald. Norman Black one of the most popular publishers in North Dakota, head of the Forum publishing company has been mentioned and Judge Crawford of Dickinson is also considered among the possibilities. Former Governor Hanna's name also is mentioned.

Now that Gronna has come into the race and there is every evidence that the managers of the I. V. A. have made their peace with the Liederbach faction of the Nonpartisan league, the talk of a dark horse becomes more insistent.

McHarg, it will be remembered, sprung into prominence in I. V. A. circles when he fought the Jamestown suit to have a receiver named for the Bank of North Dakota. After the recall election the suit died a natural death and McHarg has been silent on state issues until this letter.

Another indication of the reported I. V. A. Liederbach faction alliance is that some well known league leaders are now circulating initiative petitions for the I. V. A.

THE HOME TRAIL
(Florence Bomer.)

There's a trail that leads afar across the ocean,
And a trail that leads to hidden yellow gold;
There's a trail that leads to Fames dominion,
And a trail you take when you grow old.
But the trail that to the heart is dearest,
Is not the one that leads across the foam,
Not the one that leads to fame and fortune,
'Tis the trail that takes you to your home.

For the trail that leads afar across the ocean,
Has caught many luckless sailors in its snares;
And the trail that leads to Fames dominions,
Is beset with doubts, and fears and cares,
But the trail that leads you to your hearthstone,
Where no shafts of pride and sin are hurled,
Is the trail that takes you back to Mother,
And the best trail in the wide wide world.

"Whose idea is it?" asked Nick drowsily.
"Whose idea is anything? Who has been trying everything in his power to keep you from taking the record to the Princess Thelma? Why Twelve Toes, the Sorcerer, of course."

"But we heard a brook," Nancy started to tell him, "and we—" "Yes, I know you heard a brook," Kip interrupted. "And there isn't any brook on this mountain any more than there's a cow in the moon. That's why I'm here."

"When I got your galoshes from the Sorcerer's cave I lost a suspender button and went back to get it."

"And what do you think that old Sowerer was doing? Pouring water from one kettle into another and back again, right in front of his telephone. And the electric wires on this mountain caught the sound—there's a telephone up in every tree that you can't see—and it sounded exactly like a mountain brook to you. Old Twelve Toes is probably listening to what I'm telling you this very minute. Won't he be mad!"

CAPITOL THEATER
"Beyond the Rainbow," enacted by a matchless cast including many of the best known headliners of the screen, will be shown for the last times today at the Capitol Theater. It is one of the biggest achievements recorded to the credit of Wm. Christy Cabanne, the prominent director, and is distributed by R-C. Pictures Among those in the cast are Harry Morey, Helen Ware, Lillian (Billie) Dove, Rose Coghlan, Macey Harlam, William Tooker, Marguerite Courtat, Diana Allen, Edmund Breese, George Fawcett, James Harrison, Huntly Gordon, Virginia Lee and Clara Bow, big beauty contest winners; Charles Craig and Walter Miller. It tells a story full of heart interest and well sustained mystery, in which a beautiful young girl, impersonated by Miss Deva—a famous Follies beauty—wins during happiness because of her unshaken faith and courage through a long, hard fight against odds.

"THE SHEIK" AT THE ELTINGE.
From the great interest displayed in the announcement that "The Sheik" was to be shown in Bismarck, there is little doubt that the picture is one of the year's most successful photoplays. The novel by Edith M. Hull is a story of the Sahara desert and is now considered as one of the best sellers in the literary market.

The role of the Arabian tribal chieftain, Sheik Ahmed Ben Hassan, is portrayed by Rudolph Valentino, the handsome young actor who sprung into instant popularity by his work in "The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse." He is a romantic actor and makes a perfect picture as the colorful warrior-lover of the desert wastes. Agnes Ayres, the newly created Paramount star, plays the featured lead—the haughty English girl who is captured by the Sheik and forced to do his bidding. The story tells of the strange love between these two characters and the many vicissitudes which are undergone before a perfect understanding is finally established between them.

"The Sheik" is the attraction at the Eltinge for Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, matinees and evenings.

ADVENTURE OF THE TWINS

By Olive Barton Roberts
Although Nancy and Nick tramped over the entire side of the Electric brook, not a sign of it could they see. At last they grew very tired.

"O.J. let's give it up and go back to the path," said Nancy. "I'd like to find the Elderdown Mountain and lie down and take a sleep."

Suddenly who should appear beside them but Kip, their little Brownie friend, who had found their galoshes for them.

"Oh, Kip, I'm so glad to see you," said the little girl. "I'm so tired and I think we're lost or something. And we've had a lot of trouble."

"I suspected as much," nodded Kip, "and that's why I'm here. By this time, if all had gone well, you'd have been over Elderdown Mountain and half way over Chocolate Mountain. Hey! Watch out there! Don't sit down! If you do you'll touch some of the electric flowers and get shocked. Then you never will get to the end of your journey. That's the idea. To tire you both out so you'll sit down and get an initiation by spring."

COMPENSATION CASE ON TRIAL

Compensation Bureau Seeks To Enforce Payment

The case in which the Workmen's Compensation Bureau is seeking to enforce payment of premiums by the Beulah Coal Mining company, Hughes Electric company, and the Bismarck Gas company is on trial in district court before Judge J. A. Coffey.
Miles A. Dawson of New York, and H. D. Baugard of Columbus, noted actuaries are expert witnesses in the case, the points raised in which are in a large degree technical.
Judge Coffey is hearing a number of cases which were left over from the December term.

Cincinnati, Ohio.—"I suffered for a year with nervous troubles and irregularities before I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. My back pained all the time and I was unfit for work. I was worn out if I cooked a meal, and was unable to do my washing. My girl friends said if I would take your Vegetable Compound and Liver Pills I would be relieved. Hazel Bartron Dies at Douglas Douglas, N. D., March 21.—Hazel Viola Bartron was born at Bismarck, on March 22, 1907, and died Tuesday, March 14, 1922, after a short illness, death being due to rupture of the bowels.

The sad news of her sudden death cast a shadow over the whole community, for most of her short but happy life was spent among us, and every heart was touched with sympathy for the stricken ones, from whose fireside the light had fled. For fifteen bright, sunny years not only had she been the joy and comfort of the home, now left empty and desolate, but her sweet, childish presence brought a wealth of sunshine and happiness into the lives of the entire community. We feel the emptiness of human words in time of bitter sorrow. Yet he who "has borne our griefs and carried our sorrows" will comfort and sustain.

Funeral services were held at the Catholic Church Saturday morning at 10 o'clock and interment was made in the Catholic cemetery of this place. —Contributed.

Health Brings Beauty

YOUR HEALTH IS VITAL TO YOU.

Minneapolis, Minn.—"I have always had the utmost confidence in Dr. Pierce's remedies, because my mother took them for a number of years to strengthen her, and she praised them very highly. I have taken the Pleasant Pellets whenever in need of a laxative and have found them to be effective although very mild in their action. And I have on several occasions taken Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and the 'Golden Medical Discovery' when run-down, weak or nervous and have never once been disappointed, for they have restored me to perfect health and strength."—Miss Florence B. STATE RECORDS CHANGED, SAYS AUDIT REPORT

S. L. Waddell amounting to $121.84; and he appeared to have drawn salary for only two weeks, in May, 1920.

Mileage books amounting to $1,020.00 were purchased during the period of the office, but no record was found as to distribution, or as to who used the mileage, the audit report says.

Unusual Transactions

The most unusual salary transaction is discussed as follows:

"A. W. Leuhns' service covers the period from July, 1919 to April, 1920, and in a written statement made to Mr. Lewis F. Crawford, secretary of the Industrial Commission, he stated he was notified to report as bill clerk for the senate, and was confirmed by Bismarck November 25th and remained until December 13, 1919. The arrangement was that Leuhns was to receive his usual salary from the Fargo office, and was also reimbursed for his expense during his employment by the senate." His expenses for the period were $63.75 and salary $152.90, the report says.

Included in the list of unusual transactions of the office are, according to the audit report, the following:

Part of the furniture was sold and a check for $90 received; but was undeveloped. It was stated by J. A. McGovern that other furniture had been sold but no receipt was found.

McGovern said all records had been shipped to the Industrial Commission. The report says, "The records on file in the office of the Industrial Commission consisted of one Journal, one Ledger and a package of Vouchers. Most of the vouchers were duplicate carbon copies, and very few original vouchers were found."

TAXPAYER COST THUS FAR GIVEN TO COMMISSION

mill, leaving $919,385.20 applicable to the Grand Forks project. There was received from the state treasurer, terminal elevator fund, $134,374.45.

The contract of the Feagles Construction company for the erection of the Grand Forks mill and elevator is $322,350.00 and a commission of $100,000, the audit report shows, this being subject to provisions for additions or deductions on unit price materials. The total amount of the contracts is $2,385,136.92, and the audit company report shows $1,287,897.04 is necessary to completion of these contracts.

Because of the modified cost plus system used in the construction of the mill exact costs of completion cannot be stated at this time.

"No appraisal or verification of present values was made by us," says the report. "It is apparent that the prices in force during the time of construction and during the time of completion were considerably higher than similar prices at present. No attempt was made to set up in the balance sheet any accrued asset or liability of the engineer's fees or contractor's commission based upon the total contracted price and amounts paid."

Summary of Project

Receipts, Bank of North Dakota loans, etc., $1,348,655.25

Disbursements, $1,275,133.35; ledger overdraft on Dec. 31, $31,476.09.

Construction cost $748,994.47; inventories on hand, $296,472.39; total, $1,045,466.86.

Notes payable—cash advance, $971,000.00; retirement of bonds and interest, $23,596.79; interest to Nov. 23, 1921, $55,713.71—total, $1,050,310.50.

A summary of the contracts for the complete mill is given as follows:

General $1,097,350.00

Elevator machinery 99,447.74

Power house, filter plant 271,294.00

Sheet metal products 4,401.80

Contracts contemplated but not let 471,937.00

Sewers 18,534.38

Mill machinery 325,074.00

The auditors did not make a physical inventory of material on hand at the Grand Forks mill because weather conditions would have made this very difficult and expensive, it is stated, and the inventory was taken from records available.

THIS MAN WAS HELPED.

John Grab, 2539 Jackson Ave., New Orleans, La., writes: "My kidneys were weak and had a soreness and dull pain across my back. I felt dull and languid and my kidneys didn't act right. I began taking Foley Kidney Pills and they soon put my kidneys in a sound healthy condition." Foley Kidney Pills help the kidneys rid the system of acids and waste that cause lameness, backache, sore muscles, swollen joints and rheumatic pains. Tonic in effect, quick in action.

Wishes He Had Known It Sooner.

"I only wish I had discovered Foley's Honey and Tar 50 years ago, as I have been the victim of attacks of influenza and had colds until I found this wonderful relief," writes W. H. Gray, 854 Nowitz Pl., Venice, Cal. Foley's Honey and Tar helps coughs and colds, bronchitis and is gripe coughs, tickling throat and hoarseness. It is good for croup and whooping cough. A SAFE TEST

For those who are in need of a remedy for kidney troubles and backache, it is a good plan to try Doan's Kidney Pills. They are strongly recommended by Bismarck people. Ask your neighbor!

Mrs. J. W. Moran, Sunny Brook Dairy Farm, Bismarck, says: "A good many years ago I had an operation for a floating kidney which was successful, but afterwards the other kidney became affected and I suffered for nearly a year with lameness across the back. I got so dizzy I couldn't stand. I went to the hospital and took treatments but got worse all the time. I read about Doan's Kidney Pills being good and got some. I am pleased to say that after using two boxes I got entirely well and have since passed U. K. tests for insurance and passed U. K. tests at all dealers. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. D."

WOMEN JURORS ARE DRAWN FOR COUNTY PANEL

City Commission Puts Names of 5 Local Women in the Jury Box

PETITION IS PRESENTED

Business Firms Ask Abatement of Ash Conveyor Device of Company

Women jurors may help decide cases in Burleigh county at the next term of federal court.

The city commission, asked by the county officials to draw 26 names to go into the general jury box, last night included five Bismarck women among the number. They are: Miss Jessie Hamby, Mrs. F. A. Lahr, Mrs. E. J. Schults, Mrs. Ella Bodenstab and Mrs. Mary Ella Smyth.

The 21 men drawn by the commission are: Wesley Baker, Finley Baker, G. H. Russ, Harry Clough, Oscar Selvig, Harry Burk, Ben Currier, Henry Burman, W. T. Kraft, Dan Slattery, O. W. Kowerts, Herman Falkenstein, D. J. McGillis, S. E. Register, Neal Campbell, Bert Drennan, Ed Wade, E. J. Schults, S. W. Corwin, George Doorley and John Tautel.

There is no certainty that the women will be drawn by the clerk of the court for jury service, as the names submitted by the city go into a box with a large number of names placed there by the clerk of court, from which a certain number are drawn.

Petition Presented.

A petition signed by 34 business firms or individuals was presented asking abatement of the ash conveyor of the Hughes Electric company on the ground that the ashes blown by the wind cause damage to stocks of merchandise and discomfort to visitors. The petition said the company "in connection with said plant operates and maintains a device for the purpose of removing ashes and cinders in large quantities, which escape from said device, and travel through the air for some distance, alighting upon the streets and sidewalks and buildings situated on and along Main and Fourth streets, causing sidewalks and buildings to be covered with ashes and cinders, which find their way into the mercantile establishments, hotels, residences and other buildings and being ground into the floors and soiling and damaging merchandise and other property, depreciating the value thereof, and greatly annoying guests coming in on late trains and having cases before the courts the following morning, the noise coming from the operating device disturbing their peace and rest, causing many complaints to the management of local hotels."

The petition was referred to the city attorney with instructions to take action.

O. W. Roberts appeared and said the ashes were interfering with instruments of the weather bureau and that if some action were not taken the government would act.

The commission instructed the city auditor to advertise for bids for sidewalks, garbage hauling and sprinkling for the coming season.

Transfer Made.

The commission transferred $591 from the contingent fund to the bond sinking fund to increase the amount to $2,000 to pay two of the original $1,000 bonds outstanding. Sufficient interest was not received from the levy of last year, it was said, and there was no levy this year for the purpose.

The Trades and Labor Assembly asked for permission to use the city auditorium on Sunday, May 7, when the state federation meets. This was granted.

Bills were allowed as follows: Street and sewer department $104.00

William Pinnell (refund, pav- ing) 6.20

E. H. L. Vesperman (refund, paving) 24.27

Mrs. Carl Liver (detention hospital) 86.00

Mrs. Fred Olson 1.73

Wm. Ebeling 56.00

R. H. Treacy Estate 20.00

George Gussner 27.00

Better than jewels

—that schoolgirl complexion

Take a lesson from Cleopatra

With a world of ancient beauty arts at her command, she depended on cleansing with Palm and Olive oils to protect, improve and preserve the freshness and smoothness of her skin.

This beautifying was not confined to the face alone. The bath was a daily ceremonial with all ancient peoples, and palm and olive oils the cleansers used.

Do this every day

There is too much dirt and dust where most of us live to make it advisable to neglect this cosmetic cleansing even for a day. Powder should be removed, and rouge, if you use it. They combine with dirt and skin secretions in dangerous clogging.

Dry skins are benefited by cold cream after cleansing. If unusual dryness is your trouble, apply a little before, as well as after washing.

Blended from the same oils

Palmolive Soap is blended from the same bland soothing oils which adorned the sumptuous marble baths of Egyptians, Greeks and Romans.

Modern scientists, with all their research, have not been able to discover milder, more soothing, or more efficient soap ingredients.

But although very expensive, the gigantic volume in which Palmolive is produced keeps the price very low. Users profit by Palmolive popularity.

The Palmolive factories, working day and night, and the importation of the rare oils in vast quantities, allow you to enjoy this finest facial soap for the modest price of 10 cents—no more than ordinary soap.

How to have a perfect skin

No girl need be afflicted with a bad complexion, for improvement is simple and easy. Daily cleansing, gentle but thorough, is the secret.

You must use soap, for nothing will remove the dirt, oil and perspiration which collects in the pores and causes most skin trouble.

Choose Palmolive, because its action is soothing. Harsh soap should never be used for washing the face.

Massage the smooth, creamy lather gently into the skin until it removes all clogging deposits. Don't forget your neck and throat. They are as conspicuous as the face for any lack in beauty.

Careful rinsing leaves the skin stimulated, freshened and free from the accumulation which enlarges the pores, causes blackheads and carry infection.
